

I am opposed to the new rules. Allowing more concentration of media ownership will stifle diversity of views. The airways are public and regulation against concentration of ownership is needed to protect the consumer. The new rules favor large conglomerates at the expense of smaller owners.